LOS ANGELES, California, Dec. 9 -- Equality California issued the following statement by Executive Director Rick Zbur on the endorsements of 53 incumbent legislators running for reelection to the California Senate and Assembly in the 2018 election cycle:

"LGBTQ Californians are lucky to have so many strong pro-equality champions fighting for our civil rights and social justice in Sacramento. Indeed, the Golden State is leading the nation's fight for full, lived LGBTQ equality -- serving as a beacon of hope to LGBTQ people around the world -- because of our partners in the California Legislature.

"As they continue to stand with Equality California and demonstrate their unwavering support for a world that is healthy, just and fully equal for all LGBTQ people, we'll continue to stand with them -- and we're confident that California voters will, too."
