Press Release

Sherman Oaks - On Sunday, Congressman Brad Sherman hosted a Valley Town Hall at Millikan Middle School in Sherman Oaks. A crowd of over 700 people attended the Town Hall to listen to Congressman Sherman answer questions covering the economy, gun violence, impeachment, airport noise, the climate crisis, fire relief assistance, and many other issues facing Congress, the San Fernando Valley and the nation. Congressman Sherman has held over 200 Town Hall Meetings.

Sherman invited several local elected officials including City Attorney Mike Feuer, City Controller Ron Galperin, Assembly member Jesse Gabriel and Assembly member Adrin Nazarian.
