SACRAMENTO, California, Dec. 1 -- Equality California issued the following news release:

Equality California, the nation's largest statewide LGBTQ+ civil rights organization, announced endorsements of 53 incumbent members of the California legislature running for re-election in 2024 on Friday.

Equality California extends pro forma endorsements to incumbent California state legislators running for re-election who have earned a 100% pro-equality rating on the organization's state legislative scorecards in both of the last two years and who meet Equality California's code of ethics, standards of conduct and other applicable endorsement criteria. (See below for additional details.)

"LGBTQ+ Californians are lucky to be represented in Sacramento by so many incredible pro-equality champions," said Executive Director Tony Hoang. "Together with these legislators as well as members of the California LGBTQ Legislative Caucus, Equality California is working to protect transgender youth and their families, defend abortion access and reproductive freedom, preserve access to gender-affirming care, and create a world that is healthy, just and fully equal for all LGBTQ+ people. We are proud to support these fantastic leaders in their campaigns for reelection this year."
